Item 2 – Educational Background and Business Experience

Rodney Brown, President of A&B Asset Management Services, Inc. (A&B) was born in 1969. He graduated in 3^{1/2} years from Canisius College while participating on a Division 1 Athletic Scholarship in Basketball. He received a degree in Communications and Sociology in December 1991.

His love of numbers and helping others naturally led him to create A&B in 1998 and has since dedicated himself to helping others build a better future. Prior to being an investment advisor representative, Rodney enjoyed a successful and prominent sales career at Modern Office Machines and IKON where he ranked number one in sales throughout his career winning Rookie of the Quarter as well as becoming a member of the Winners Circle which recognized superior sales performance. He has passed his series 65 which is required to be an investment advisor representative as well as his Health and Life Insurance exams.

Rodney resides in Holly Springs, North Carolina with his wife Julie and their five children.

Item 3 – Disciplinary Information

Rodney Brown has had no legal, regulatory or disciplinary events that would be material to a client's or prospective client evaluation of him.

Item 4 – Other Business Activities

Rodney Brown is not engaged in any other investment related businesses outside of A&B nor does he have any applications pending to register as a broker-dealer, registered representative of a broker dealer, futures commission merchant ("FCM"), commodity pool operator ("CPO"), commodity trading advisor ("CTA"), or as associated person of an FCM, CPO, or CTA or any other investment advisory firm.

Mr. Brown does not receive any commissions, bonuses or other compensation based on the sale of securities or other investment products.

Mr. Brown does engage in other business activities that provide a substantial portion of his income and consumes a small portion of his time (up to 5%). Rodney is a licensed insurance agent. He holds insurance appointments with various insurance companies and offers life and fixed annuities only (no variable annuities) to clients and non-clients of A&B.

Item 5 – Additional Compensation

Rodney Brown does not receive any additional compensation or economic benefits including awards or prizes for providing advisory services.

Mr. Brown does receive insurance commissions from insurance companies for providing insurance services to clients and non-clients of A&B and is fully described in Item 10 of the main Brochure; otherwise known as Form ADV Part II.

Item 6 – Supervision

Julie Brown, Chief Compliance Officer is the person responsible for supervising Rodney Brown and can be reached at 919-346-1272 or by email at julie@anbadvisors.com.

The Chief Compliance Officer for A&B monitors all advice given to clients by Rodney Brown. This is achieved by requiring Mr. Brown to complete a client investment objective profile on each client which is used to establish an appropriate asset allocation model, goals and investment objective. The profile is the basis for advisor-client discussions, advice and subsequent decisions and is reviewed by the Chief Compliance Office on at least an annual basis.

Item 7 – Requirements for State Registered Advisers

Rodney Brown has not been involved or found liable in an arbitration claim, a civil, self-regulatory or an administrative proceeding. Rodney Brown has previously filed for bankruptcy due to a default judgment that was obtained by an individual who was not an A&B client at the time or ever and received the judgment due to an attorney mistake by not filing response in a timely and proper manner. Bankruptcy was discharged September 16, 2009. Mr. Brown has filed a lawsuit against the attorney and individual and the bankruptcy does not pose any type of financial compromise to any client or potential client.
